STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1908.

NO. 57.

HIGHLAND.

Labor Day was observed by the schools of Misses Maud Hatfield and Fannie Young.

A girl baby has arrived at the home of Ollie Vanhook. Mrs. C. M. Young has been quite sick.

Rev. P. H. Ebright has been engaged in holding his last revival service for the year at the new Methodist church during the last 10 days. Eld. J. M. Long has returned from Pulaski, where he was engaged in a meeting. Miss Antoinette Fletcher, the organist during the first week of the meeting, has returned to Science Hill.

Miss Zora Baugh and John H. Young left Monday to attend Union College, Barbourville. Miss Rosa Meier, of Louisville, and Jake Meier and wife, of Somerset, spent several days with their parents here. John Spire and daughters, Mesdames Hutchison and Hyatt, attended the fair at Somerset. Mrs. E. J. Mills and son, Jack, have returned from a visit to relatives at Somerset. Misses Grace Young and Annie Butt have entered school at Stanford.

Mrs. C. M. Young desires to thank in behalf of the building committee of the new Methodist church recently dedicated, the editor for his manly kind words and notices in his worthy paper from time to time, and also the many persons in Somerset, Science Hill, Danville, Junction City, Stanford, Crab Orchard, Moreland, Kingsville and Wayneburg and other parts of the county who so liberally donated to the church, and also for their presence at the dedicatory services. Also to Mr. E. G. Baugh for his untiring efforts and energy in staying with the work until it was completed.

HUBBLE.

Misses Nannie Adams and Bettie Walter are attending the State fair. R. L. McKechnie has returned to Tampa, Fla., after a visit to his parents here. R. L. Hubble is in Louisville this week. Mrs. J. A. Hammond is visiting relatives in Casey and Russell counties.

Hubble & Gooch sold some stock ewes to M. B. Eabanks at $4.50 B. W. Givens sold his mixed hay to Banks Hudson at $9 per ton. Jess Fox bought some hogs in this community at 5¢. J. A. Hammond has already placed a car-load of fertilizer among the wheat growers here.

After a brief illness of typhoid fever Miss Lucetta Underwood passed to her reward last Saturday night. She was a devout member of the Christian church and a most excellent woman. Her taking away shows the importance of being prepared, as she was, to answer the final summons.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

A Washington special says: Charles Cottrell, of the staff of the Associated Press in this city, who has been with Mr. Bryan in his travels through the West since the Denver Convention, said: "After witnessing the enthusiasm with which the Democratic candidate was received throughout the Middle West I am of the opinion that this fall will see a landslide for Bryan."

"I believe Bryan and Kern will not only carry Ohio and Indiana," Cottrell is quoted as saying, "but I believe he will carry Iowa by a safe majority."

Mr. Cottrell is about as nearly devoid of personal political opinions as any veteran newspaper man in political work can be.

The bi-partisan Board of Control for Charitable Institutions seems to be working out all right in so far as it enables members of both political parties to get a slice of the pie. There is no other visible reform.—Bowling Green Messenger.

Pink Pain Tablets—Dr. Shoop's—stop Headache, womanly pains, any pain, anywhere, in 20 minutes sure. Formula on the 25c. box. Ask your druggist or doctor about this formula—it's fine. Penny's Drug Store.

A Munich physician has patented a camera small enough for a person to swallow, by which the interior of the stomach may be photographed on a film that is 20 inches long by a quarter of an inch in width.

When New York City gets its water from the Catskills the longest flow will be from a point 130 miles from the City Hall.

ZACK T. MILLER.

Its forenoon street parade is a prompt and positive feature of the daily life of the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which will be here on Monday, Sept. 21. If you are not acquainted with the fame, resources, originality and genius of the Miller Brothers, they are content for you to base your conclusions upon the pageant which will traverse the principal thoroughfares of the city in the morning. It is a worthy and fitting introduction to the stirring performance which follows at the show grounds.

From the very nature and character of the 101 Ranch amusement undertaking, this parade is a radical departure in constituents and conduct from anything ever witnessed before. There is no vaudeville, no circus, no theatrics, no make-believe and no disguise in the make-up of this typical Western institution. The parade, thus, has nothing in common with the glittering and spangled figures and features which are annually familiar here.

Every person and part of the 101 Ranch parade is of and from the land of cattle, corals and coyotes. Every person is a figure of unquestioned repute in the Western world of sturdy and supple physical endeavor. Every man is an admitted champion with lariat, horse or fire-arms or in other departments of ranch routine. Every girl is a sun-tanned product of the range-land, whose beauty and youth seem to cry out against her hazardous exploits.

Zack T. Miller, one of the three Miller brothers, who own and operate the great 101 Ranch, leads the line, and behind him is a living narrative of the picturesque and spectacular West of past and present. Every manner and type of Western vehicle and every appliance, appurtenance and paraphernalia of the ranch is displayed. There are emigrant wagons, prairie schooners, round-up wagons and stage coaches, every one of which has done service over the prairie trails. Nobody walks in the cattle country and nobody, appropriately, walks in the parade of the 101 Ranch Show.

The horses are an interesting study. There are every kind and every size—a $5,000 Arabian imported steed ridden by Mr. Miller, the trained cowhorse of the cowboy, the jaunty equine pet of the Wild West girl, the spotted, four-footed pride of the Indian, the Shetland pony, dear to the hearts of the little ones, and the "bucking" desperado, who looks lamb-like, but is full of hatred toward mankind.

The Indians form a gorgeous and spectacular phalanx in the procession. They paint themselves and their horses with all the colors and in all the designs of frenzied savage fancy. Wrinkled chiefs, warriors with black records of warfare against the whites, patient squaws and their unremonstrating papooses, and belles and beauties of the wigwam are in the line. They are clad in beads, buckskin, moccasins, feathers and blankets. Many tribes are represented in their ranks. It is the first pilgrimage among the whites of these rude red-skin denizens of prairie and forest and they are as much amazed, amused and interested as the palefaces who watch them pass.

The tom-toms and trumpets of the Indians mingle with the brazen harmony of three bands, the shrill clamor of a fife and drum corps, the clear notes of buglers and the vociferous call of the inevitable steam calliope in the rear. The first of these bands is a pretentious military organization. The members of another are the musically inclined cowboys of the ranch, who practiced their art while guarding their cattle far from human ear or habitation. The third numbers only cowgirls, who originally formed an organization to provide the music for the infrequent entertainments on the ranch.

The Miller Brothers invite everybody to witness this parade whether or not they attend the performances of the big amusement enterprise. The life-giving, joy-restoring spirit of prairie and mountain pervades it. It will do you good to see it. It has no like in the annals of amusements.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. C. J. Sipple, of this county, is pastor of the East Bernstadt Methodist church.

Dr. W. F. Vaughan was returned to Somerset by the Methodist Conference at Middlesboro.

Rev. W. E. Arnold, twice pastor of the Methodist church here, has been made presiding elder of the Maysville district.

Over 100 persons signified their intention of joining church at a union revival meeting which opened in the courthouse yard at New Castle.

The movement at Owensboro looking to the uniting of the Frederica-street Presbyterian and the Cumberland Presbyterian churches has failed.

The revival of the Christian church at Nortonville resulted in 50 additions to the church. Rev. S. M. Bernard, formerly of Louisville, held the meeting.

The Christian church at Harlan Court House was dedicated Sunday. Elds. J. C. Elliott, of Sulphur, and J. W. Masters, of Corbin, assisted in the dedicatory services.

A communion set presented to the Congressional Church of Princeton, Mass., in 1767, has just been found in a deep closet under the church organ. The closet had not been used for nearly 100 years.

The pastor's subject for next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church will be, "Secrets of Happy Home Life; What Have You to do With It?" It is of the greatest importance for all, old and young, to know the things that God has revealed to direct our lives in the making of a home, that is the type of the heavenly. For this life to which we are called. A cordial welcome to all.

The revival at the Christian church continues with increased interest and attendance. The house is crowded at each service and frequently numbers are turned away for want of room. Evangelist Barnes is delivering powerful sermons to rapt audiences, which is bearing fruit in a number of confessions. The song service is especially beautiful and Prof. Leigh is the subject of much praise.—Somerset Journal.

NEWS NOTES.

The capacity of the Atlantic cables is 300,000,000 words annually. Only 25,000,000 are sent.

Four people were killed and 26 injured in a wreck on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad.

H. H. Smith, father of Gov. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and a well-known educator, died at his home in Atlanta.

An attempt to assassinate Gov. Fort, of New Jersey, was thwarted by the watchfulness of post-office employees, who discovered in the mails an infernal machine addressed to the Governor.

Whisky and other liquors must have age and natural color or be labelled "imitation," according to the decision of Judge Humphrey in the United States District Court at Springfield, Ill.

At a baptizing near Murray, and in the presence of 100 people, Fred and Victor Jones, sons of Poke Jones, shot and killed Will Lewis. The trouble arose over Lewis keeping company with a young woman, to which Victor Jones objected.

Suit was filed at Jackson by Mrs. Evelyn Hogg, daughter of the late Judge James Hargis, against her mother, seeking to have the department store at Jackson and all other Hargis estate property placed in the hands of a receiver.

A special from Newton, N. C., says that a sensational murder was committed when Miss Willie Bullinger, aged 19, was stabbed to death by Lon Rader, 21. The girl was seated at the organ playing the closing hymn at Sunday school, when suddenly Rader leaped across several benches and with his pocket knife, stabbed her once in the back and twice in the breast. She died almost instantly. Rader was arrested and is now in the Newton jail. Some months ago he was committed to the State asylum and in his ravings often mentioned Miss Bullinger's name. Recently he was discharged from the hospital as cured. In jail later Rader said he had killed the girl because she was a witch.

How to get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store 50c.

HUSTONVILLE.

James P. Givens, of Cisco, Texas, died last week of stomach trouble. He leaves many friends and relatives in this locality, where he was raised and educated.

Little Miss Francis L. Depp entertained 20 of her friends at a lawn party on Friday, to meet Miss Martha Albright. All had a merry time, long to be remembered.

C. M. Sipple has bought the 345-acre tract of land near new Bethel church from Isaac Halde for $2,500. There is a fine body of timber on the place which Mr. Sipple will put on the market.

Uriah Dunn left this week for Barnwell, S. C., with a car-load of good Kentucky horses for that market. Gil Cowan sold George Cox, of Jonesboro, Tenn., a splendid gelding by Dignity Dare for $300.

All singers and members of the Bible Training Class are requested to meet at the Christian church Saturday at 4 P. M., to thoroughly organize for Sunday school and choir work in the church. Don't fail to attend.

Rev. A. B. Miracle has sold Thomas Meadows 151 acres off his home tract at $15; possession to be given soon. He also sold John Douglass and Fount Privett five acres, Tom Yocum 15 acres and Sam Yocum 15½ acres at an average of $8.50.

In addition to the line of splendid blue grass farms in this county, Williams & Co. have secured a short time option on 35 tracts near Ponca City, Okla., and on 10,000 acres near Houston and Brownsville, Tex. Call and get pamphlets and full description of great bargains in fine producing lands.

Rue Spragins, our efficient telephone manager, was found on the road side beneath a telephone pole, by T. G. Tupman just before dark Saturday. In doing some work on the pole as it lay on the hillside, it tilted toward him, catching his foot and ankle in such a manner that he could not release himself and would have stayed there all night, doubtless, but for Mr. Tupman.

Mrs. Prudence Shewmaker, of Moreland, is visiting Mrs. Mat Engleman at Mt. Salem. T. Hood Engleman, of Julesburg, Col., after a week's visit to his mother at Shelby City, is with his brother, Mat Engleman. He is operator and cashier for the Union Pacific at Julesburg and has not had a vacation for some years. G. Cloyd Johnson and wife, of Ponca, Okla., are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Yowell. Mrs. A. J. Adams was painfully injured by falling down stairs at her home this week. Miss Susie Frye, of Lexington, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Edrington.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

In a suburb of Corbin George Mobley shot Tom Barton's brains out with a 45-caliber pistol. It is alleged that a woman is at the bottom of the case.

While hunting wild turkeys on the main branch of Stinking Creek, in Knox county, Columbus Taylor shot and killed his nephew, Will Taylor, mistaking him for a turkey.

Hiram Glass, of Winchester, is in possession of a porcupine which he captured in Jackson county on the Laurel Fork of Rockcastle river. It was on the farm of John Summers and is supposed to have escaped from a show at McKee about three years ago.

The following is sent from Harrodsburg: While gathering eggs in a barn loft Miss Ella Murrah heard the chirp of young chickens. She began a search for them, and, after moving hay, found a nest full of young chickens that had been hatched without the aid of a hen. The harvest hands had unloaded some hay on a nest of eggs, and the warmth from the hay had hatched the chickens. The chickens are growing nicely.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave. Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and Spring. Last Winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This Winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

The yearly subscription to any Manila daily newspaper is $12.
